GENERAL TERMS

1. The Provider is an independent contractor and decides how to perform the services.
2. Scope or fee changes must be agreed in writing. Late payments may bear interest.
3. Once paid in full, the Client owns the deliverables; the Provider keeps its know-how.
4. Both parties keep the other's non-public information confidential.
5. Either party may end this with 14 days' written notice; the Client pays for work done.
6. Neither party is liable for indirect losses. This is the entire agreement.
